

The WE LIP Settlement Partners Information Communication Exchange (SPICE) Committee hosted its third Professional Learning Circle on September 15, 2017. Over 80 staff members from the City of Windsor and Windsor-Essex settlement organizations attended the half day event which was held at the Windsor International Aquatic and Training Centre.

SPICE PLC Agenda

- Registration & Welcome
- Immigration & Ontario Works Question Period
- Networking Break
- Emerging Issues from the Canadian Council of Refugees
- Motivating the Challenging Client
- Eligibility Requirements for Social Housing

Participant Feedback

"Great idea and opportunity! Would like to see some type of forum to continue this."

"Wish we had more time."

"Happy to be part of front line in assisting newcomers. Definitely think these opportunities to meet are necessary and should continue."

"Interesting to know about helping refugee claimants (how we can better work together and specialize in different areas so claimants can get excellent help)."

"Great opportunity to get together and network through SPICE."
